29th Annual Area IV Leadership Conference

Memphis, Tennessee

“Serving Youth and Adults”

---

December 16, 2010

Warm greetings from the Area IV Director, Memphis Chapter President, Conference Co-chairs and its members. We have met and combined our spirits, ideas, thoughts and our love to welcome you to the 29th Annual Area IV Leadership Conference.

We celebrate all things in Memphis, named after the ancient capital of Egypt and home to three Fortune 500 Companies: AutoZone, Federal Express and International Paper. From Graceland to Beale Street, “Home of the Blues”, to the Banks of the Mississippi – with the LeMoyne-Owen College, Stax Records Museum, and the Civil Rights Museum in between – Memphis offers the ultimate in Southern hospitality and cuisine. Down the road a little piece is also the home of Little Las Vegas – “Tunica”.

We hope to expose you to a little of the “city” and beyond while fulfilling our agenda. Informative workshops, memorable tributes, gala events and enriching experiences have been planned to reaffirm our continuing commitment of turning visions of our founders into a reality, and to empowering our youth to fulfill their dreams of reaching success.

May each endeavor be pursued by each attendee in the sisterly spirit of unity and may each of you leave with a renewed spirit of Participation.

Yours in service,

Lady Barbara B. Travis, Area IV Director

Lady Millicent C. Hoskin, President

Lady Mary H. Lambert, Conference Chair

Lady Loyce L. Ryan, Conference Co-chair
